List of 220 Tennis Tournaments To Be Played This Year Breaks All Records of U.S.L.T.A. Number of Sanctions Will Be Further Increased by April 15

First Round Matches for Davis Cup Likely To Be Played in Europe, Not Here as Expected; Motion Pictures of Tennis Stars To Be Shown

By Fred Hawthorne

pirnaments on the official list, as against the grand total of 15 of last year. With still a most a month to go, the schedule pects to add about a dozen more fixtures to the present total This breaks all former records. The full list will be made

> Voshell in Indoor Lawn Tennis Final

Match Promises Sensational Play at 14th Infantry Cours This Afternoon

innounced by Paul Anderson to Meet

H. Laurentz, the great player who died a few days ago.

The intional men's, funfors' and boys' indoor championship tournaments for 1923 were awarded to the 7th Regiment Tennis Club, this matter having been held over since the annual meeting of the national association. The Princess Anne Club, of Virginia Beach, was admitted to full membership in the association.

Those who attended yesterday's meeting, all members of the elecutive committee, were Julian S. Myrick, Dwight, Dwight, Davie, Charles Garland, Abnar Y. Leech jr., Edwin Sheefe, Richard Norris Williams 2d, Watson M. Washburn, R. Clifford Black, Louis B. Dailey, Crair Biddle, Paul W. Gibbons, Henry W. Slocum, Robert D. Wrenn, George Townsend Adde and Nathan H. Bundy.

Von Boeckman Leads Gunners at Mineola legiste record of twenty-four seconds

P. Von Beeckman did the best work at the Mincela traps of the Nassau Trapshooting Club resterday. He took the high scratch prize with the excellent score of 40 out of a possible lifty turgets. Continuing, he scored a leg on the long run cup with a straight string of 56. on the long run cup with a straight string of 56.

The high handicap cup was won by H. H. Shannon. He won it on a shoot-off against W. Simonson and Lieutenant Colonel M. R. Guggenheim. All had 49 out of fifty targets in the original shoot. On the shoot-off the prizes vent by A. S. Roberts.

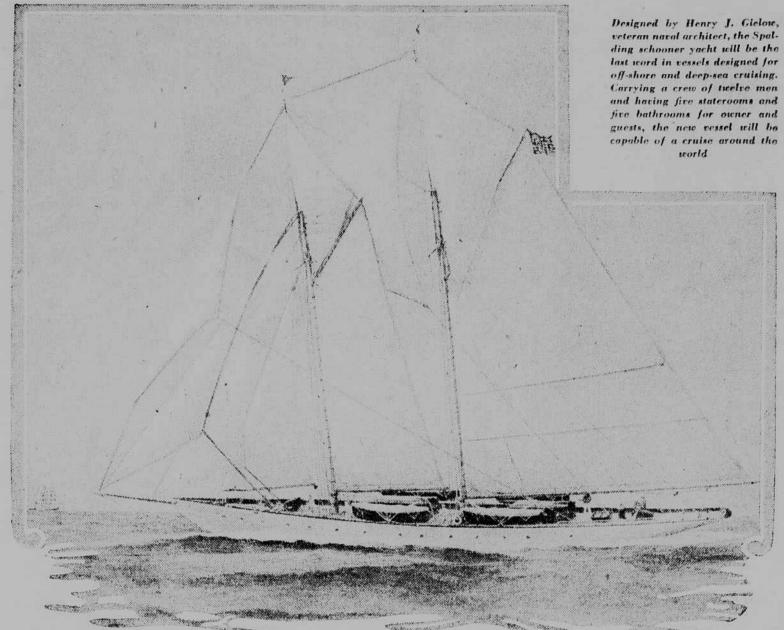

Navy Matmen Easily

Win Over Mass. Tech.

Annapolis, Md., March 18.—Navit

The 220-yard swim should go to Sim-

Two-Masted Auxiliary Schooner Being Built for Keith Spalding

Shatters 300 - Yard Relay Race Record

New Haven Swimmers Easily to the French Lawn Tennie Close Competition Assured in

Intercollegiate Aquatic Meet

Damon, of Amherst. Favorite for 50-Yard Title

Damon, of Amheret, is looked upon as favorite for the fifty-yard dash, because of a report that he best the col-

Yale Aquatic Team Spalding Builds 161-Ft. Yacht For South Sea Island Cruise

Speer, of Mercersburg, Sets New Mark for 100-Yard Swim | he was replaced by Walter Goodwin | jr., who rowed No. 3 in the freshman

PRINCETON, N. J., March 18.—Charlie Speer, of Mercersburg, broke the national interscholastic record in the 100-yard swim here tonight, clipping four-fifths second off the old record and making the century in 56 seconds. His performance was made in the first national in the first crew this year, was remarked to the control of the cont

Three Schools Tied for Lead In Junior Swim Championship

General Improvement in Performances Marks See. ond Series of P. S. A. L. Meets; Bulken Covers 100 Yards in 1:17 4-5 in Winning Event

General improvement in performances marked the s

Swim Summaries

out the South Seas Indications Promise Eights Above Average Merit Will

Oxford-Cambridge Crews in Training For Putney Race

Represent Each College

Yale Coach Still Undecided

yacht Carnegie, designed by Mr. Gelow fouriern years ago. The good ship Carnegie has cruised 504.750 miles and is still in excellent condition. The remarkable history of this beat caused Mr. Spalding to adopt many of her fentures for his own craft. The new Spalding years is being built by the Bettlichem Shipbuilding Corporation at that concern's plant at Wilmington. The contract calls for delivery on Cotober 1.

The yacht, a two-masted auxiliary scanning radius of 4.050 miles. The yacht's equipment set box equipment is to be completed and refrigerating plant. The small beam, 30 feet; depth of hold, 21 feet; draft, when fully loaded, 15 feet 3 inches. The design shows a yucht of smooth symmetrical lines, with no radical features. She wilh have a liberal displacement, planty of freeboard and a generous lateral plane that should give a constraint of the proceed to the years are larged for case hand in the reacht of the reacht of the pacific Coast, ware she will fit out the voyage to the South Seas.

All statement plants are rew of twelve.

The auxiliary power is to be a six of contract of the Diesel type developing 180 horse speed of approximately eight niles and refrigerating 180 horse speed of approximately eight niles and more recently approximately eight and the second variety has been continually outpaddling the first varsity, and revenue and revining country to the fact that within the last that converns plants at Willington and the process of the process of the power work.

In spalding year to delivery on October 1.

The yacht a two-masted auxiliary screen and will include an ice-making beau are represented with the second varsity has been continually outpaddling the first varsity, and revenue are represented and and refrigerating plant. The small beauty from the process of the process tations and his place was taken by Martin, who rowed on his freshman crew and on the second crew of 1921. Because of a temporary indisposition crew last year and who, until this week, has been stroke of the third individual interscholastic aquatic championships held in the Brokaw Pool, Princeton, this afternoon and evening.

The old record of 0:50 4-5 was made by the day during the week, owing to the absence of Captain Gibson, his place at No. 5 was taken by Littler, who was School, and had been equalled also by Speer. Speer also won the 50-yard dash in the excellent time of 24 %-5 seconds and was the individual high scorer of the meet.

Wins Tournament

Wins Tournament

Birclow May Replace Legitic Shedield, who was in the freshman boat last year. One day during the week, owing to the absence of Captain Gibson, his place at No. 5 was taken by Littler, who was captain of the freshmen last year.

There is no clarice that Littler will replace Captain Gibson, but there is quite a chance that some other place will be found for him in the boat.

Rigelow May Replace Legits

Tilden and Wiener

Three-Set Match

Lose in Practice

Penn State Overwhelms Springfield Wrestlers

luning five of the seven bouts

Luvantage, 27116.

128-point Class—Weizel, Penn State, threw Whitney with crotch and neck hold. Time, 5:54.

Time-point class—Captain Mooney, Spring-field, won decision over Wilson in 9 minutes. Time advantage, 7:57.

Heavyweight class—Canzer, Penn State, won decision over Simon in 9 minutes. Time advantage, 7:45.

Exform—Language.

O'Dowd Beats Bartfield

Brooklyn, in the main twelve-round bout at the Rink Sporting Club of Brooklyn last night. The judges and the referee did not have any difficulty in deciding upon Mike, who landed the neavier blows, did the cleaner hitting and had Bartfield very tired in the last three rounds. O'Dowd weighed 159 and Bartfield 150 pounds.